

Tax Payment Information

税金のお知らせ

Welcome to Nagano Prefecture.

In Japan, various administrative services are provided with taxpayers' money, which includes waste management, fire fighting, traffic safety and education.

People with international nationalities are also obliged to pay taxes according to the regulations and conditions. Those who fit the requirements are requested to make the payment by the due date.

The following explains main taxes: tax and taxpayers classifications, etc. (There are national (e.g. Income tax) / prefectural / municipal taxes in Japan, but listed below are main prefectural / municipal taxes.)

Note 1) ◇ : Municipal taxes ◆ : Prefectural tax

Note 2) “Tax Payment Notification” : This notification is required upon the payment of your tax. This sheet carries information such as your name, address, the amount of tax you should pay, and the juristic regulation on which your tax charge was based.

- * A convenient “automatic deduction service” is available. There is no need to worry about making a payment at a financial institution, reducing possibilities of payment default.
For further details please refer to any of the following “inquiry contacts.”
- * It is also recommended that you ask your company payroll staff to have your residence tax be withdrawn from your salary.
- * When you move, please inform the taxation division staff of your municipality.
- * If you should fail to pay a tax before the due day, you will be charged a delinquent charge by a statute.
There may be a case where your money in bank accounts or payroll will be seized.
